“ Wow sis. What a year this has been without you! I couldn't find the words to put here when you passed away but I believe I can now. When we were growing up, I idolized you. I always wanted to be your sidekick. I admired your strength. As the years passed, things changed. I no longer needed you to fight my battles, because you were fighting your own. I want you to know that there is not a day that passes that I don't think of you. I see you in Marisa so much. Your children, are safe. We miss you every day, and I will always remind your children of how much their mother loved them. See you again sissy. I love you.

“ How sad such a young life taken. I worked with Lisa's mom Cindy for many years at Great Clips and Buzz salon. No parent should ever lose a child the way Lisa was taken. My heart goes out to Cindy. She is a wonderful person and was always there for her kids. Lisa was a good person, she just couldn't fight the demons that plagued her and it's sad she couldn't or wouldn't get the help she so desperately needed. Sorry Cindy for your loss.
