“ Lois was a very dear cousin of mine. We shared many good family times together, and they were always so much the better if she were there.

She encountered more than her share of tribulations in life, losing her mother at an early age, then helping raise her brothers. Pat and I were as close as any cousins could be.

I miss him and think of him very, very often.

My mother was Lois' Aunt Kay. My mother and my Aunt Julia had great affection for each other.

May they all rest with Christ.
