“ Grammie,

It is me, Leanie Beanie. I am older and as you know my Dad died. I miss you both now. Life got a lot harder. I look to the day to see you all again. And the girls miss and love you as much as me!

“ Dear Grandma,

We will always remember you as we raise our children.

You and Grandpa started your family in the very town in which we journey through our lives in. ĩ ħ½It is a great honor to know that we are close to you and striving to be as you and grandpa are.

Mary Star of the Sea, (2nd pew on the left) is were we will pray for all our family members that are still earning their place with you in the Lord's Heavenly Kingdom. ĩ ħ½We will be together again and we smile at the thought of all ĩ ħ½of us together again.

Love to all, Steve and Eileen

“ My childhood memories of Lois are that she was always the vivacious center of the party with her sparkling smile and twinkling eyes. ĩ ħ½I know that my parents (Robert & Marion Kelliher) will miss her dearly as they get together with their poker club. ĩ ħ½Luckily her loving personality made its way into her children...##imported-begin##Eileen M. “ Dear Grammie,

We love you and miss you more than our words are able to describe. ÿ½

You know each one of our hearts and our real thoughts and feelings. ÿ½

You are truly blessed and our Father has the most beautiful place for you in his Kingdom. ÿ½For you are beautiful.

The pain of the soul is the hardest injury to bear, but through you we go on to try as we may to heal ourselves through your example.

Kiss that sweet baby for me because I know you sing sweet lullabies as you did ÿ½for me. ÿ½Thank you and we love you so much. ÿ½

In your smile at what is in my heart, I say to you, we will be together soon...

Love, Me###imported-begin###Leanie Beanie###imported-end###
