“ I've known Lois my entire life. Beautiful woman inside & out. I've had the pleasure of working with her and she was a go getter. I will miss Lois at our local food pantry where we shared laughs & memories. It's odd that the last time I saw her I told her I loved her & now this. I'm so glad I had that last chance to tell her.

“ Years and years of friendship, how can I pick out only one memory. We raised children together, had morning coffee gatherings, had all the usual parties of Tupperware, Stanley, clothing, you name it...fun gatherings of women filling their homes with items from wish and want list...These are the things we remember, and how crazy we were..and Lois with her smile being the one who usually had us at her home because she was always watching someones child. This is what small town people do. Then when children were all in school we entered the work force, thats where I was lucky and also worked with Lois at B & T. Retirement drew us in different directions with familys growing, but some occasions brought us together along with the memories, good and bad...I will miss her. Loretta Stalnecker

“ 3 years ago when Chris & I bought our home we also were blessed to be moving next door to such an amazing person & family. We honestly couldn't have asked for a better neighbor & friend. I will truly miss our long conversations & laughs. We are grateful to have become so close to such a beautiful person. It will never be the same not seeing her or talking to her again. My heart is truly broken to have lost such a wonderful person. You will always be our 'grandma Lois' and will forever be in my families hearts! May you rest in peace, you deserve it! And don't worry, Chris will take good care of your grass & I will always care for your flowers. We know you and Jeff wouldn't have it any other way.. 💕

“ Lois was my second mother her and my mom were best friends as were Tammy and I. I spent a lot of time over at there home and one memory that sticks out the most is when she tried to pull one over on me and make macaroni and cream of mushroom knowing I hated mushrooms she didn't think I would pick them out or noticed them and I did and just look on her face was priceless I'll never forget it I can see it in my head and then she'd start laughing I love that woman she's an amazing human and she will be missed!!!!
