“ I meet Lois several years ago when she would come in once a week to play the organ for us. We would have our lower functioning residents in what is now the chapel and Lois would play the organ. We would sing or just sit and enjoy. I always looked forward to hearing Lois play. After Lois moved into the Lodge she would still come over and play bingo. She was always such a card, laughing and joking and befriending everyone. I will miss her laugh, her music and her love of life.
