“ Dear Gramma,

I love you and miss you. I carry you in my heart forever. My sons, although young remember you also. The memory of your scent, the way you hugged me, your sweet giggly voice, the way you always made me feel I was dearest in your love. The way you made sure to include me and my brother and our families in your thoughts and prayers will always be a comfort. Once we visited and you made me open a new carton of milk because you wanted my sons to have fresh milk, not some from the carton that was already opened. When Eric was toddler you got out a china dog that had belonged to your Father and wanted to him to play with it, you said, "I just want to see him play with it" so you could link him in your mind to your Dad. When we would visit we would go out with you and get a wheel chair from the stores which Eric loved to push, and you would try to hold Steve on your lap, even though he was wiggly. You always made sure to create a time and provide a place for us to be able to be with my Dad. In thousands of ways you made me feel precious to you, and that made me feel special and precious to myself. I love you forever Gramma, Dawn
