“ Verna,
I know how it feels since I lost my parents two years ago, two months apart. The great caring memories they leave behind will help fill the void of their absence.
I haven't seen you in so long You may not remember me, but I believe we went to school together way back in the 50's at Our Lady Academy in Manteno. I believe I was accused of tying your dress to the chair, amongst other things. The Nuns always had a list of what I did wrong for my father when they would see him.
I know your Mother and Father new Stella (my step Mother) and My Father Butch (Elden). I bought them to live with us in Florida in 1999. Their buried in the Heusing Cemetery in rural Grant Park.
Wishing you the best through these difficult times. Our thoughts and prayers are with You and Your Family.
