

Lorraine Redman

November 4, 1924 - June 21, 2008

Lorraine Redman -- Kankakee Lorraine "Bobbie" Margaret Redman died June 21, 2008 at Provena Heritage Village, surrounded by her family. Cremation rites were accorded by Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Crematory, west Kankakee. A private ceremony will be held with burial in St. Paul's Cemetery, Monee. Memorials may be made to Hospice of Kankakee Valley. She was born on Nov. 4, 1924, in Kankakee, the daughter of Joseph and Margaret Engelke Mitchell Sniegowski. Her husband, Clyde W. Redman Jr., whom she married on Dec. 23, 1950, is deceased. She graduated from Bradley High School and was employed by the Bear Brand Hosiery Company, and later by the General Foods Coupon Redemption Center. As a homemaker, she enjoyed sewing and creating quilts for her grandchildren. She was an excellent cook and was especially known for her pies. Her kitchen door was always open. She devoted her life to her children and grandchildren and loved her dogs, Betts, Lady, and Pepper. She enjoyed telling people, when they asked, how she got her nickname, "Bobbie." Surviving are one son and daughter-in-law, Rod and Anna Redman of Brighton, Colo.; two daughters and one son-in-law, Vicki Fender of Bradley, Karen and Mike Harms of Limestone; one sister, Nelda Goodrich of Kankakee; five grandchildren, Rachel Fender of Chicago, Danielle and Brandon Cronk of Kankakee, Courtney Harms of Bourbonnais, Jeremi Redman and Jeredd Redman, both of Brighton, Colo.; several nieces and nephews; and her dear friend, Jackie Milk of Watseka. Deceased are her parents; three brothers, Donald Mitchell, Shirley "Jimmie" Sniegowski, and Kenneth Sniegowski; and one sister, Lillian Hopper.

Tribute Wall

“ I have some great memories of Bobbie. I still prepare a couple recipes that she shared with me many years ago. All of the family are in my prayers. May you be comforted by the One whose presence Bobbie now beholds.##imported-begin##Marsha (Spencer) Easter##imported-end##

June 22, 2008 at 05:16 PM

“ Aunt Bobbie will be missed as she always appeared to be in good spirits. I always enjoyed talking to he.##imported-begin##joe harrington##imported-end##

June 22, 2008 at 05:16 PM