“ I cared for Lou Ann for many years, through United Cerebral Palsy, where I volunteered. I learned to love her mother, Vivian, who cared for Louann. She was a remarkable young woman, who even though was so severely incapacitated, managed to show sparks of her intelligence. She will be greatly missed by her brothers, who loved her much. God bless you Lou Ann, as you reunite with your mother.

“ Denny and Gary, Sorry to hear about Lou Ann's passing. I remember how much she loved your mother. I believe that she is in resting in God's arms with your mother and father and is happy. May her memory bring joy to your hearts.
