“ Dear Farman Family,

I am sorry to read about your loss. It has been many years since I have seen many of you, but I always try to keep in touch with Jeff and find out how you all are. I am sure your father was held in deep respect by you all and his life sounded like it was lived to the fullest. Cherish your memories of him and keep each other close in your hearts and Amy & I will do of you during your time of grief.
