“ I enjoyed visiting with Lou so much when I did her hair. We had some interesting conversations esp. when she got a perm and we had more time. I enjoyed again visiting with her the short time she was in Watseka Health Care. I was so sad the day I came in and her name was no longer on her door. Thank you for sharing her, she was an asset to my life. You were lucky to have her for so long.

“ Louise was very special to me. As a child growing up, she live across the section from me by Beaverville. Then she and Alex moved next door to me by Papineau. I always valued sitting in the yard with her and Alex in the summer time. Her memories will always hold a very valuable place in my heart. Even though she was older than my own Mother, she was one of my best friends. She always had an apple for Linda on Halloween, which was much healthier than candy. Louise and all the other ladies in the West of Saint Anne Home Extension were the very best examples of rural housewifes from the 1900s. They were all very fun loving and the best of friends. How I miss them all !!. Very few are left now. Alex and Lou were the best neighbors that anyone could ever have. Louise always had a mischevious smile and a special glint in her eyes.

To all you family members: May God Bless you in your time of mourning. Remember all the good times. Louise and Alex's 50th Wedding Anniversary and their love of a lifetime together. Their having cattle all those years and a beautiful garden. God has a very special place for Louise and Alex.

“ Lou was like a second grandmother to me when I was growing up because when I was growing up I stay just east of her and Alex . i would ride my bike down to her house when i just wanted tto get away from home and she would always call my mom and tell her where i was .While would wait on my mom to get to her houseshe would give me chocolate covered gramcrackers and a forsted glass for milk . I also rember a couple of times when she babysitted me when my mom asnd went out and we played with the lincon logs and the train set up in the attic . I am glade to have had the chance to know such a beautiful , wonderful , caring and loving person . Now Alex and Lou are back together once again in a happier place .I will really miss you Lou !
