“ To the Winfrey family...I was sadden to see today that Lowell (Mr. Winfrey to me) passed away nearly two years ago. I actually have been living overseas for several years now and am in Kosovo. I hope you are well, Mrs. Winfrey, and perhaps I will stop in at the house if and when I am in Kankakee again. William "Bill" James

“ Beverly,

Please accept my condolences. I remember your dad from when I was a little girl attending First Baptist Church on Court Street. He seemed like a gentle man.

You may not remember me by my married name but I know you would remember me if you saw me. We went to church and high school together.

I hope all is well with you and your family.
