“ My memory of my sister Lucille is how she would unwrap all her Christmas presents before Christmas and wrap them back up. One time she decided she would wear a sweater to school and then put it back under the tree. On Christmas Day when she unwrapped it my Mom wondered why the elbows of the sweater were dirty. She had to fess up to what she had done. We all had a good laugh that morning. I hold my memories of her in my heart.

“ My memories with Lou comes from our teen years. Friend to her sister Marie which brought me to many occasions in her family home where she was raised with her three sisters. Our time was spent filled with lots of laughs, (mostly from Lou), along with listening to music, and enjoying her mom's cooking!

Prayers to all of her family. I cherish these memories. I know all of you will hold your memories close to your hearts ❤️🙏
