“ My girlfriend Gloria Dowell Lecocq and myself, Sharon Seborg Sovinski, would babysit for them. I think there were just 3 girls at the time. They lived in a very tiny house just 2 doors away on Bourbonnais Street. I think Gloria and I visited when they had moved to River Street and remember Lucille had just taken a rhubarb pie out of the oven, it was great!! Sorry for your loss.

“ To Lucille's family,

Your mother was my neighborhood playmate. We lived across the street from each other on N. 4th Av. Many evenings, I went to your mother's house and we played "house" or whatever felt good. It was she who introduced me to the public library--still a favorite place for me. By 8 pm, the porch light was on at my house and I knew it was time to go home. Time passed--we both married and had families and we moved from the Kankakee area in 1966. My mother-in-law was a resident at Heritage which is where your mother and I reconnected after SO many years. Unfortunately, after my mother-in-law's passing, we lost touch--again, but I thought of her often. I always remembered her birthday--May the 18th--because it had a lyrical sound to it. Though time and distance separated us, please know that I, too, will miss knowing she is still holding down the fort in Kankakee. Please accept my sincere condolences and prayer that your happy memories will replace your sorrow.
