“ Aunt Lou,

I'll never forget the time my sister Denise and I trudged through the blizzard of '68 to your house because it was closer. You found us something warm and dry, gave us some hot chocolate and wrapped us in blankets! I ½ remember you as a very warm and generous woman.

To my cousins, Dorothy, Theresa and Laurie, I am sure you miss her but should take comfort in knowing that she is in heaven!##imported-begin##Michelle Studer Kembitzky##imported-end##

“ Lucille was always very pleasant to be around at any of the holiday gatherings we attended at Linda's.

Will miss her positive disposition.

Sorry for the loss to all the family.

May God Bless you all.##imported-begin##Dale, Shirley & Kristin Farthing##imported-end##
