“ I remember Lula from when I would go with my grandma, Hattie Schosser, to get her hair done at Lola's. She was a wonderful lady. I was a little girl and Lula and Lola (and all the other ladies) both gave me special attention. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Lola, and your family, I have very fond memories of you both.

“ Lula was always the social one of the twins.. she found someone to talk to no matter where she was. She is an amazing person who had a courageous battle and never once said she was in pain. Lula, i hope you know how many lives you touched and how much you will missed. We will take care of Lola dont you worry.... we love you!
