“ Lynn & Glenn always had their door open to the youth at our church. We had the pleasure of serving with them at Manteno for many years. They would open their home for parties bible studies or just to sit and gab. Her influence and love for people and the youth was infectious. When we moved we didn't loose contact. We would talk from time to time on facebook and it was like we were still there. She will be so missed. Glenn and family you will be in our prayers as you go through the next few days weeks and months.

“Lynn was one of the very first people we met when we moved to Bradley and looked at ONU as an option for college for my son. And then, later, there was grooming the girls, Sophie and Savannah for you. I remember when we laughed about what to 'call' the haircuts, and settled on 'shabby chic'! It was hard not seeing you guys after I stopped grooming the big dogs a couple of years back. Every time I saw Lynn around and about town she always had a cheerful smile, an open heart, and a sweet spirited, friendly greeting. She was a lovely lady and it showed truly through her love for her family and for everyone she met. We will all miss her greatly. We know that she loved the Lord and she is with Him now, waiting to be reunited with all of the saints who remain, someday soon. My thoughts and prayers are with you Glenn, the kids, and the grandchildren. Tuesday will be a long, hard day fraught with tears and sorrow, but also with the joy in knowing that we will see her again. Until that day, may our gracious heavenly Father hold you close to himself, and help you as you walk through the grieving process, and learn to live without her physical presence in your daily lives. She will never really be gone from us as long as we remember her, and remind each other of the wonderful Christian, woman, wife, mother and grandmother she was.

“ I'm saddened to learn of Lynn's passing. Over the years of my association with Olivet, she was always a pleasant voice at the end of the phone line and willing to help with anything that was needed. It was easy to see she loved God and serving Him.

“ Glenn and family. I know how precious and how much Love, Lynn felt for each and everyone of you. With the passing of a loved one it's so darn hard. Lynn and I have been friends since we were 10. Years and moving away we lost contact for a while then good old facebook came around. We would send messages to each other, oh how she loved her grand babies. I guess the Lord wanted her home, sometimes that's hard for me to understand. I hope you all can find peace in knowing she is no longer suffering. I pray for strength for everyone. She will be truly be missed by many, as she blessed so many people in her life. With love, Cheryl Zona Kailer
