“ Several years ago I had a "special" friendship with Joe Lanoue. I sometimes worked in the Lanoue Auto Sales office, and had the opportunity to visit with Madore. He was full of optimism, honesty, and caring of others. I remember the day he threw his cigarettes away, and never smoked again! He was reliable and appreciative of people and of life. My sincere sympathy to Madore's family.##imported-begin##Danna Blanchette-Postilio##imported-end## irreplaceable. You always made me feel loved, and proud to be a Lanoue. You made a difference to many people, not only your family, and we all benefited greatly from our time with you. I will always carry part of your special spirit within me; I will share your memory with my family and friends in words and hopefully through my deeds. Thank you for being you. God bless you and our family.

“ Mr. Lanoue, as I liked to call him. Was one of the people back in the 50 that would help us (younge kids) out when we had trouble with our cars and he new we didn't have lot of money and would take it easy on us. Also like to see him and Joe come into Blue's Cafe in the morning and just talk.

Were glad that our life pass and we got to know each other and will meet again some day. Richard & Aline###imported-begin###Ricard & Aline McHie###imported-end##
