“ Dear Janet,

It has been a long time since I saw your mother. She was such a kind and friendly woman and truly a blessing to the group at Westwood Oaks. I would visit her when I went to see my aunt, Violette Viviani. I remember meeting you a few times when you came in from New York. I just wanted to extend my sympathy to you and let you know what a wonderful soul your mother was. Even when she could no longer see very well, she knew my voice. Needless to say, she made an impression on me.

Peace and blessings to you.

Sincerely, Rose Gianotti
