

Maida Marshall

February 15, 1913 - November 11, 2007

Maida Marshall -- Boise, Idaho Maida Odell Marshall, 94, of Boise, Idaho, formerly of Kankakee, died peacefully Sunday (Nov. 11, 2007). Her grandson, Greg, was by her side. She was born Feb. 15, 1913. She had been a resident of Life Care Center for the past 15 years. Prior to that she lived with her son, Dennis Marshall, also of Boise. Maida and her husband, J. Vernon Marshall, owned Marshall Real Estate for many years, where she served as secretary. She was a dedicated Christian mother and grandmother. Her love of Christ and the church came first in her life, and she dedicated many hours at First Baptist Church and Immanuel Baptist in mission work. Her personal testimony will always be cherished. Maida was a terrific piano player and although she played mostly hymns during church services and for special services at the Life Care Center, she could really "jazz it up" on numbers for the family which they really enjoyed. On her 90th birthday, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren listened as she still "tickled the keys." What a great lady. She enjoyed her sewing club with all her lady friends for many years at First Baptist Church. Her family will always remember her wonderful cooking and love of Sunday gatherings. Maida was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, J. Vernon Marshall; her son, Dennis V. Marshall; her grandson, Bruce Marshall; and her brother, Rev. Denzil Neumann. She is survived by her grandsons, Greg Marshall of Boise, Kurt Marshall of Crandon, Wis., and Jonathan Marshall of San Diego, Calif.; sister-in-law, Maxine Neumann of Kankakee; eight great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, Nov. 16, at Immanuel Baptist Church, 1300 W. Hawkins St., Kankakee. Visitation for family and friends will begin at 10 a.m. Burial will follow at Mound Grove Gardens, where she will be placed next to her husband, J. Vernon, who died 25 years ago on the same day. Pastor Neumann, her nephew, will be officiating. Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, west Kankakee, is in charge of arrangements.
