“ Marc was a great guy, he was always there to lend a hand to help in any way he could no matter what was asked of him. He had a great sense of humor and always made me laugh, especially when he would always call me by the nickname he gave me, Jacknee! I will miss him and his wonderful smile. My deepest sympathy to his family for their loss.

“ He was always so kind to my mother while she lived at Bickford. She loved how he joked with her. He would always stop what he was doing to say hello or to answer a question. I know he will be missed by the Bickford family. May he be wrapped in angel wings on his next journey.

“ Marc will be missed so greatly at work by myself, his co-workers, but also residents and their families. He was always willing to give a helping hand. Always smiling! How we loved to joke around. So loved by all. Gone to soon but God had other plans for him. He has left us all with such good memories, good times together. Love you Marc, can't wait to hug you again my friend. Ohhh what you must see now in heaven <3 God Bless his Children and the Grandchildren he loved and talked about ALL the time. Prayers to you all!

“ I remember when Marc & his family first moved to town, we used to see them at the beach regularly & my son Jarrod caught one of his first fish compliments of Marc. It's going to seem strange not running into Marc around town anymore. May God Bless Marc & his Family !!!

“ I have heard and read many things about my cousin Marc's willingness to do things for others. Repair things, build things, overhaul things. Many times without a thought to reimbursement. He did that for my folks many, many times. He was just a pall bearer at my Dads funeral in June and just last week, was here to help me replace a bathroom exhaust fan and to put up a new antenna on the roof because my Mother, his only living Aunt on his Father's side, couldn't get basic channels anymore. The other great thing about Marc was his sense of humor. After the antenna was put up and his tools packed away (except for the wrench he left on the roof which is still there), he gave me a wink and went and gave his 87 year old Aunt a hug and said to her "Aunt Cela, now you can watch all your channels again." Then he said close to her ear, "Now don't you tell anyone, but I set you up with all the porn channels!" My mother looked at him in shock and then noticed that silly grin on his face and we all had a good laugh! That was Marc. I will miss him.

“ I met Marc when we moved across the street on 25th street back in 1978. We became very good friends and I consider him a brother. Marc got me into bowling and we joined a league at 21st Century bowl on Chicago road. We went to Bloom together, we also went on vacation with each others family. I will truly miss him, RIP Marc. My deepest condolence Fran.

“ I met Marc at Bickford when he first stated. His smile was so genuine and his passion for people was inspiring. He made my dad laugh and smile everyday, despite his declining health. I could always count on Marc to not only help out with any task but to bring a laugh and smile to my day. I am so terribly sad that we will never again be graced with his spirit and beautiful personality. God welcomed one of the very best when Marc arrived.
