

Margaret L. Arnold

October 11, 1915 - November 2, 2013

Margaret L. Arnold, 98, of Bourbonnais, passed away Saturday (Nov. 2, 2013) at ManorCare Health Services in Kankakee. Private graveside services will be held. Memorials may be made to the care and treatment of pediatric oncology patients. Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, west Kankakee, is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Arnold was a grocery store owner, barbecue stand owner and antique dealer. She was born Oct. 11, 1915, in Erie, Pa., the daughter of William and Margaret Goyer Curtis. Her husband, Paul Arnold, whom she married Nov. 29, 1933, in Montrose, Pa., passed away in 1999.

Surviving are one daughter, Margaret (Claude) Bazile, of Bourbonnais; 16 grandchildren, many great-grandchildren and many great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one daughter, Marilyn Zartler.

Tribute Wall

IG

“ Steven,
Our hearts and prayers are with you. Margaret was such a special lady. She found me digging in the dirt 20 years ago, and gave me the gift of gardening. I am sure she and Paul are having a wonderful dance in each others arms. Know how much they were and are loved by so many. You are in our prayers.

Iola and Matthew Gomez - November 07, 2013 at 06:23 PM