“ Cookie and Family, Our family sends their prayers to you and your family...our life journey with your parents dates back to American Lutheran Church in the 1970's & '80's...I fondly remember your dad always with Bible in hand...he was a man of God as was your mom...teaching Sunday School, filling in in Pastor's absence...and sharing the word of God with all young and old...treasured memories for me. ĩ½As we celebrate their life we also celebrate yours...the love, compassion and care you shared with mom is an inspiration to children with aging parents...we are who we are because of our parents. God Bless You and your family and provide you with the strength to celebrate her eternal life with Jesus!Love,Cindy###imported-begin###Cindy DeGroot###imported-end##

“ We met Margaret through her visits with her daughter Marcia in Hot Springs, Arkansas where we also live. ĩ½She was a sweet, gentle, and as lively person as her health permitted. ĩ½Her eyes always brightened as we of the church where she visited greeted her. ĩ½She was a wonderful conversationalist, and I (Carolyn) always enjoyed our small talks about the weather and family affairs. ĩ½We will truly miss her endearing visits to the south, where we looked forward to her coming as regularly, as we did the trill of the "snowbird" that makes its residence here every winter.###imported-begin###Buddy & Carolyn Partain###imported-end##
