“ I met Margie at my place of employment. Even though I did not know her well, she was always so friendly and pleasant. My sympathies to her family and friends. I know she will be deeply missed

“ My deepest sympathy to Margie's family. I was so saddened to hear of her passing. She was a very kind and loving person--always helping those in need. Her loving legacy will live on in the lives of all those she came in contact with and with her family. She was a great neighbor and we all had wonderful times together--the laughter and teasing back and forth across the yard is a very special memory. She was my angel after Tom passed away last year and even in her grief, she wanted to help me. That was Margie, always helping and thinking of others before herself. She fought the good fight and I know Jesus said to her, " Well done, my good and faithful servant." Love you, Margie
