“ Jim - terribly sorry to hear of your mom's passing. It took me a minute to remember where I heard her name before when I saw the obit - then I remembered a young man I had climbed a mountain in Wyoming with a long time ago and how he had loved his fun loving good hearted mother. I owe you a few pictures of that trip i borrowed long ago and I still have them somewhere - send me your address when you get a chance and when I find them you will get them in the mail and you can rediscover your youth! Take care old friend. Wishing you nothing but fond memories of your beloved mother. Bill Maass.##imported-begin##Bill Maass##imported-end##
