“ Dear Mayor Paul Schore and family,
On behalf of the Bourbonnais Grove Historical Society, I offer our sympathy to you at this time of your mother Marie's death. She was proud of her French-Canadian roots, she shared that pride in our historical society's mission, and she instilled in your present family the desire to convey the meaning of that special heritage. Now, in her memory, you will be guided as you continue to pursue her values.

“ I deeply enjoyed my conversations with Marie over many years while she got her hair done. We talked of life in years past and all the things that she had seen change in her lifetime. She was a kind soul and I've thought of her often even after I had left the salon to which she presented weekly. I'm so sorry to hear of her passing.
