“ Oki-Dokie was one of the kindness women I was ever blessed to meet. She always had a smile and needed her coffee in the morning to wake her up (it could have been from the wine the night before) She would walk by my office and I would say "stand tall point your toes" she would smile and say Oki-Dokie. Cindy I am so glad that our path in life crossed your mom was a wonderful mom just look what a wonderful daughter she had. You and your family are in my prayers Love ya Linda Clark (former bookkeeper at ManorCare)
