“ Marilyn was our next door neighbor at Gravel Lake for 40yrs. We shared many fun parties and stories on our screened in porches. We looked so forward to the weekend gatherings with our friends, be it progressive dinners, champagne breakfasts, card playing, making elephant ears. or whatever crazy fun idea came to mind. Marilyn was a special lady. Deepest condolences to Mike & family, Larry and Betty Druckten

“ My sympathy to Mike and family. Your mother was a very friendly and out going person .

We had several conversations when she would bring her car into Balthuns for service .

I never realized she was your mother. She was very likable.
