“ My deepest condolences to the family. I met her through her son. She became a friend and mother like figure to me. I will miss the phone conversations she and I had. I could talk to her about most anything and with her wisdom she would give advice. She didn't tell you what you wanted to hear but what she felt you should hear. It's not She will be missed it's She Is missed. Love you Marilyn... RIP.

“ *Marilyn never met a stranger.
Like her late husband Don, she had one of the most beautiful, contagious smiles.
Marilyn, like me, cherished her little dogs with all of her heart and absolutely adored her children and grandchildren.
Family was everything.
You will be missed, beautiful lady.
Rest easy now and fly high.
I love you.

“ *My sincere condolences to the Randall's family. I met Marilyn when I worked at Main Street in Manteno. We would talk about how she worked at George Ryan's pharmacy. She loved to bake us delicious desserts. She was a woman of God and shared her faith. She will be greatly missed. No more pain and suffering. She's with our Heavenly Father.
Love
