“ Marilyn was a very dear and loving lady. She went out of her way to help others. I remember times that she helped different ones out that needed the help. She didn't ever think bad of anyone no matter what a person had done in their life. We were talking one day about the Bible and different things that happen in people's lives and she told me that all sin and forgiveness is what Jesus teaches us. i½She showed true Christianity in her life. She is now with her Lord Jesus that she loved so much. Our prayers are with you Laverne and the rest of the family. We send our love.##imported-begin##Marlene i½& Larry Heagle##imported-end##

“ Cathy and Steve, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember, Cathy, you used to talk about the Thanksgiving dinners you had at your Mother-in-Law's house. Also the Bible verses your girls had to memorize! Remember all the good times, and keep them close to your heart.

With deepest sympathy,

Marilyn

“ Laverne & family, we cannot tell you how sorry we are. We truly enjoyed seeing you guys when our paths would cross and being able to visit for our short little time.

I can tell you one thing that I love about Marilyn was how comforting she was to me (Scott) after Trevor's accident we spent what felt like to me hours sitting at the church, although it was only minutes.

Laverne our thoughts are with you.

Love

“ Mr. Schultz,

 Mrs. Schultz was such a wonderful lady, you have my deepest sympathy.

I cannot express how much you both have been an inspiration. Memories of the campout at Rosenbloom farm and Thanksgiving dinner at your home.

Mrs. Schultz's warmth and caring spirit. Christlike beyond words that can describe. What Glories she must be seeing now!!!

“ "Mrs. Shultz", as I knew her, was always cheerful and always in the middle of serving others. ½Her warm and tender heart were a blessing to me as a teenage boy and now as an "old man" of 51 years. ½About a year ago we visited my mother in K3 and saw the Schultes at church. ½as we left that day she shook my hand and left a $50 bill in it. ½She said the Lord had told her to do that. ½She had made many attempts to reach out to my mother who is unchurched. ½Thank you, ½Mrs. Schultz! ½I look forward to seeing you again one day!###imported-begin###dennis, diane , jordan corriveau###imported-end##

“ We just learned of Mrs. Schultz' homegoing yesterday (1/22)and were shocked and saddened. She was such a warm and outgoing person. When we visited K3 she'd take us out for lunch. Once she invited my Mom and I for lunch and another time we went out together with the Dygerts. She was such a giving and loving person. What a testimony and Christ-like spirit she had! Our prayers are with the family. We will see her again one day soon!###imported-begin###Tappan, Denise (Corriveau) Hornor###imported-end##
