“ Hello my cousins, very sorry to hear of Marilyn's passing. Your family are in my prayers. I found Marilyn's obituary because I'm an amateur Genealogist. You do not know me, but we are cousins and we are related 3 times by blood. Marilyn's Great Grandfather Narcisse Granger is a brother to my Great Grandfather Edward Sr. Her Great Grandmother Hermina LeCuyer wife of Narcisse is also a sister to my Great Grandmother Philomene LeCuyer wife of Edward Sr., and our third relation is Marilyn's Grandmother, Regina Bouchard Granger is daughter of Emma Lebeau Bouchard. Emma is a cousin to my Great, Great Grandfather Joseph Lebeau through my Grandmother's family. For years I have been trying to contact the descendants of Narcisse & Hermina LeCuyer Granger's family. I'm now an author of a Granger and Lebeau family website named after our Great, Great Grandfather, Charles Granger who left Saint Georges d' henryville, Quebec with his family and settled in St. George, Illinois in 1847. The name of the website is "Charles Granger 1810." You can find it in Google search. Please feel free in contacting me, so I can provide your family with their password to access the website. I would like very much to share our wonderful French Canadian family heritage with you. I do not have any photos of your main Granger line, but I do have a wonderful photo of your Great Grandmother Regina Bouchard Granger with her parents, Godfrey Bouchard and Emma Lebeau. Very sorry to discover Marilyn's obituary at a late time. I would have liked to come down and pay my respects to Marilyn and meet her family. Hope to here from you soon. Votre Cousin, Donnie##imported-begin##Donald Granger##imported-end##

“ Tom and all of Faye's family, I just returned from out of town, and was saddened to learn of Faye's passing. I knew she had been struggling for some time so for her for her it was a Blessing that God came for her. However, I know for all of you her death created such a void, and I want you to know that I'll keep you all in my thoughts and prayers.

Faye was a lovely lady who always so friendly and kind. For many years we both attended daily mass in Manteno and would always have a little visit before or after mass. I enjoyed those chats and getting to know her abit better.

May you be blessed with fond memories, and the assurance that she is know enjoying eternal life. In sympathy & friendship,
