“ Margie worked with myself at Mountain Bell, Tempe AZ. We spent many a weekend, holiday and weekday together. We were there for the good times and bad. I added a picture to the wall of the Legris family at one of my Holiday Parties. She enjoyed my Tom and Jerry’s. I will always remember her caring personality, smile, laugh and always a book in her hand. Your influence on my life will not be forgotten. Rest In Peace, my friend.

I became friends with Margie when we worked together at Loves. We had such fun, many days were spent discussing books we had read and stories we should write about. Margie loved her family and talked about them often. I cherish our laughs and time together my friend. See you in heaven one day.

So very sorry to read of Margie's passing. She & I were often partners in cleaning up after communion at St. Pauls on Sundays. I got to know her kind & often humorous personality. It was a delight to work with her. My sympathy & prayers to Mike & family.

“ I've known Margie since the fourth grade when we sat on the steps of the St Paul's Lutheran church during our recess playing with our dolls. Being part of our small St Paul's class of 61, I also went to high school at BBCHS with Margie. She always had a book that she was reading and she and I were co editors of the school yearbook and newspaper. Margie was brilliant, one of only 18 out of our class to be inducted into the National Honor Society and she wrote poetry, both humorous like her personality and commentaries of our world at that time in the 60s. Tears today for missing our classmate and longtime pal but glad that she is pain free in the arms of our Lord to rest forever. Sending love to her husband and her whole family during this sad time. Love you Margie, old pal, Alice Rogers Cote

“ I worked with Margie at Illinois Bell in the 60's and 70's. She was a special lady. A happy person always smiling and laughing. We reconnected when I saw her at the “love shop”. She will be missed. Rest well Margie!
