“ Marjorie and Jerry are together again and with Jesus in heaven. Here on earth they were both wonderful in their walks in the Word. Gracious, kind, generous and loving. Their family is a testament to this. They are missed.

“ Marjorie and I shared much together. She was a dear precious friend to me! We share many lunches together! When she came for lunch at my place, she would have me over to her home the next time. She was a very classy lady with a heart of gold. There were many heartfelt moments between us. She will be deeply missed, a very precious friend who will remain in my heart forever. I shall never forget you but always miss you. You are a shining light and will be forever missed!!

“ Marj is a wonderful example of God's love and grace on earth. I met Marj only through my good friend -her daughter - Mary. Marj clearly taught her children how to love her Lord. Later Marj opened her home to me and showed me the tender spirit of 'Christ in us'! What a precious example for me as a 'young' mother..wife..nurse (another thing we shared). Thank you Shrock's for sharing your beautiful mother with me!

“ We are so thankful for Marj and how she blessed our family through the years! We have memories of cousins Jerry and Marj visiting us when we lived on Gables in Wheaton and they were always so much fun! Then it was such a blessing when your family moved to Wheaton and started attending First Baptist! We remember great youth events at your home and our parents enjoyed a deep friendship with your parents in a group of 6 couples. Your parents also blessed our church with a beautiful grand piano that is still there. Marj was always so sweet, gentle, and giving. She gave of herself to so many. We will miss her! Your family is still very special to us and we are praying for you in this difficult loss. Love, Jack Anderson, Kent and Lisa Anderson, Dave and Cindy Heslinga, Brad and Markie Anderson, Clay and Karen Anderson

I have know doubts that she is feeling great in the Presence of our God! Thank you God for the friendship of Marj! She was such a blessing to me! 💕💕*
