“ Many years ago, I worked with Mark at Mr. Steak. He was kind of quiet, but always SO nice and sweet. I remember those beautiful, dark, twinkly eyes well. He was very kind to us co-workers. Fast forward another 10-15 yrs, I was an RN at St. Mary's ER, and saw Mark and Lynda with one of the kids. Still the same sweet guy. Reading your tributes about your dad and "Papa" did not surprise me! So sorry for your untimely loss, but very glad you had such a wonderful patriarch, he was a true jewel. I was also so happy that he had such a loving family. He was proud of you all. I wish I would have had a chance to give him my support, or just reconnect. A wonderful man! My heartfelt sympathies to you all, and know that you will see him again..... Charmaine Courville Sims
