“ Don, Diane, and Tim,
I meant to share this with you at the visitation, sorry it's so late. When our children were grade-school age, I would on occasion bring them to KCC. We would visit Marlene in her office, and she always showed my children grandmotherly attention. She would also often ask me about my three - how were they doing in school and what activities were they were involved in. I treasure the kindness Marlene showed to my children. Requiescat in pace.

“ To Don and Family our sincere sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Marlene was a former friend and co-worker many years ago when we both worked at Lassers Furniture Store. She was a wonderful and witty lady whom I will never forget. May time and love bring you peace. God bless you all. Carol (Eckstrom) and Rob Stoops

“ My deepest sympathy in her passing. I worked with Marlene at Lassers Furniture and always enjoyed her wit and humor. We even bowled together. She was a lot of fun. I believe at the time she was taking care of her mother.
