“ One of my favorite memories of Marvin was from high school at Bishop McNamara. One semester we would ride home together from school. My dad worked at Sears in Meadowview shopping center which was a block away from the school. So Marvin and I would walk to Sears to pick up my Dad’s car.
I also remember that Marvin was quite a talker. When he would talk to you though, he was always focused on you and the conversation at hand.
He told me that he always appreciated our friendship which meant a lot to me.
Rest in peace, Marvin! God bless you in your heavenly home.
Your friend, Tony

“ My deepest sympathy to Michele and the Hess family. I remember Marvin as a teenager. He was a kind soul who was quick with a compliment and a smile. All of you are in my prayers.
