“ Evie and I send our deepest condolences to Betty's family. I recall with affection the many years she and I sang together in the church choir and the Something Special Singers. She and I shared many warm experiences decorating the church at Christmas and Easter. We would tease each other about our skills. She was always ready with a friendly hug when our paths would cross and delighted to share memories. Peter Torchia

“ I will never forget the kindness and love shown to me by Betty many years ago. I had just received the bad news about my late husband's health from the doctor and went to St MARTIN's Church to pray but it was locked. Betty happened to be walking by and noticed me sitting in my car and unlocked the church for me and then stayed to give me comfort by talking awhile.

My sympathy to her entire family.
