“ From Janet Tennie, The memories I share about Mary are all happy ones. We were co-workers at Illinois Bell in Chicago. When I retired and moved to Texas, we never lost touch with each other. When I visited Chicago, she along with other former co-workers got together. I will miss our phone conversations which could last for many minutes. My deepest sympathy to Kenny, Cynthia, the grandchildren she so dearly loved and enjoyed talking about them. God bless you all.

“ My deepest sympathy to Ken and Cynthia. Mary was one of my very dearest friends. Our friendship spans well over 55 years. We never once loss touch with one another. Even when I relocated to Las Vegas I knew Mary would pay a visit. She was truly a wonderful, loving friend and I will miss her terribly.
