“ I remember "Mrs. Falter" well. She was my teacher in gradeschool and was a strict teacher but imagine we learned lots more from her that way. Wayne, I remember riding the school bus with you all those many years. I just lost my mom last week and she also was 96 years old. Bob & Gloria Clodi told me that it wasn't often that they attended visitations for two 96 year olds in one week. My sympathies to you and yours.

“ I was thinking of Mary just a few weeks ago and wondering how she was doing. I have to agree with one of the other comments that Mary was a feisty, friendly lady. :) Of course, you couldn't talk to Mary if you just had a few minutes as she had the stories to tell taking a short breath between each one :) She finished a piece of furniture for me many years ago that I still have in my kitchen and she did a beautiful job on it! I have many wonderful memories of our chats on the phone & in person. My sympathy to all of her family. Sorry that I wasn't able to attend her service today.
