“ Where to begin? My second Mom as a kid growing up when not getting chased away by Bob! A real classy lady that always had a kind word and sound advise if you took the time to listen. As I got older I would go over just to talk to her and seeing Wendy was a plus I mean who am I kidding right? She reached out to talk to me a few days after my Mom passed away and I'll never forget that conversation she really helped me through a tough time. Miss and love ya Mom. Tim M.

“ Sending thoughts and love across the Miles to your family...
The memories of sleepovers and pool parties and an occasional snowmobile ride bring a smile to my face.
And one infamous car ride from Chicago with your Mom and that boot--I know you remember Kelly. Love always, KMM xo

“ She was always a bright spot when I would see her. Mary would always ask how you were doing and never complained about others or situations. I loved her laughter and she seemed to be smiling every time I saw her. She would tell stories of when I was little which I enjoyed hearing. She will be missed. Love to you dear Mary.

“ I met Mary through her family at Flight 102 Wine Bar, and enjoyed her smile and stories.
Even through Covid ,we played Words with Friends. She would chat about the news of the day. I hope she is resting in peace, Heaven gained an Angel!

“ Mary was one of the sweetest kindest sassiest women I’ve had the honor of knowing. She was everything that I hope I will be as I go forward in my life. My heart goes out to Kelly, Wendy, all of her kids and grandkids and family. This world will miss something not having her here, but haven’t sure got a wonderful lady.

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to the family. I had the pleasure of working with Mary in a law office in Kankakee years ago. She was always so proud of her daughters and extended family and talked about them all the time. God has truly gained a fierce Warrior Angel by His side. Rest in peace Mary.
