“ I am saddened to hear of the loss of Mary. My mom and dad thought a lot of "Auntie" Mary and "Uncle" Charlie, and their family, as did I. Mary always had something good for a young lady such as myself to eat when she came to visit, and was, hands down the best baker. I will never forget her or her kindness. She and Charlie always made me feel like family, as did Mary Therese, who didn't seem to mind me going to visit her Hubert doll in her room even when she wasn't home. At least Charlie and Mary are together again, along with my mom and dad, watching over all of us. My deepest condolences to the family. Sharonrose Zane-Neu

“ Outside of my parents, "grandma" Mary was the most instrumental person in raising me, helping me become the person I am today. From the stories I've heard, my mom and dad took out an ad in the Annunciata church (East Side, Chicago) bulletin looking for childcare help. Grandma Mary answered the call, and along with "grandpa" Chuck took care of me after school and in the summer for many years. I vividly remember getting out of school and excitedly seeing grandma Mary, as we walked the four blocks to their home on Avenue C. I never knew my "real" grandparents, but that's OK. Because in my heart the love that I had for them, and the love I know they had for me, will forever make grandma Mary and grandpa Chuck my true grandparents. May they rest in peace together -- and may their family know how much they each really meant to this little boy, and how their charitable spirit lives on through my life and my dealings with my children.
