“ Hi, Meghan. I'm not sure if you will remember me, but I gave your Mom a large pin to attach her chemo pack to her clothing. You asked me to pray for your Mom that day and that was the start of the three of us seeing each other at the clinic and occasionally in the halls of Riverside. I always enjoyed seeing you and your Mom and exchanging updates on our condition. The last I heard from your Mom was in June when she stopped to see me as I was taking a chemo treatment. She told me another spot had been found in another area of her body and she was very concerned. I gave her my phone number and told her to call me if she needed to talk. I never heard back from her and I wasn't at the clinic as much to see her there. I have completed my treatment plan now and am doing well. I am a survivor and consider myself very fortunate to be alive!!! I was shocked when I saw your Mom's obituary and felt so bad for you and your family!!! I know she fought with everything she had, but God saw her struggling and decided she needed to rest!!! I will continue to pray for you and your family during the days ahead. In the short time I have known your Mom, she made a big impression on me and I will never forget her!!! She is a part of my journey with this awful disease along with you, Meghan!!! Take good care and know that your Mom is finally at peace!!! Love & Hugs, Mary Long
