“ To all who loved her, Sometimes it is hard to understand why God would take someone so young, but I am sure God was in sore need of angels and that is why he took Mary home so soon. We don't meet a lot of people in this lifetime of Mary's caliber and when you do the loss is heavily felt. It is consoling to know that we now have someone up there that truly cares and will watch over us. Our deepest sympathy to all, Jan & Ginny##imported-begin##Jan & Ginny Foster##imported-end##

“ Mary was an amazing person and this world will be emptier without her. I didn't just know her as someone I worked with but I got to know her personally too. She was always laughing when we spoke and brought sunshine into my day as she probably did for many others. I know that hse will continue to shine down on us all.##imported-begin##Jessica Amodeo##imported-end##

“ I thought of Mary often. Her and I used to have such a good time working together. We seemed to balance each other out. If one of us was having a bad day or if something was bothering us, the other one always seemed to know what the other one needed, whether that be someone to talk to or someone to just be there and do a little extra that day. My deepest sympathy goes out to Mary's family and I hope it helps to know how fondly she is thought of.##imported-begin##Mary Williams##imported-end##

“ Mary was a very unselfish person. She had a very sweet, loving personality. Threw all the things I went thru last year with my Father in law shooting hisself in July to My Father in Texas i ½almost dying in August and still going thru radiation. Mary never once complained about herself or said anything about her illness. I never knew Till she wasnt at work any more. I believe Mary is a true Angel. i ½I have missed our talks and her sweetness. i ½God Bless you Mary, I know you are among the Angels. Till we meet in Heaven. i ½i ½Love ya, i ½Natalie i ½##imported-begin##Natalie Smithson##imported-end##
