“ Margaret & I send our deepest condolences to the entire family of Mary Jo upon her passing from this earth.

Mary Jo leading the church to sing at Saturday & Sunday Masses at St. Anne's Catholic Church weekly will not be forgotten; as well as she attending these Masses with Perry & family, as she was lead by brother James at the organ/piano.

This small amount of time at the St. Anne Church will definitely leave an indelible mark upon all of us for this leadership role.

May Mary Jo's soul rest in peace.

“ LtCol Gillan, words cannot adequately express our sympathy for you and your family during this time of grief. The loss of a parent is indescribable, and I know that you were especially close to your Mother. I wish to personally convey the sympathy of not only myself but also that of the entire INDC staff. Being a part of our INDC family, we offer our support to you and also to Marie, Joshua, and Kyle during your time of sorrow. Please do not hesitate to call upon any of us if you feel it necessary.

We, here in Israel, share your mourning and offer our deepest condolences. ÿ½

“ THE PLAN OF THE MASTER WEAVER
My life is but a weaving
Between the Lord and me.
I may not choose the colors,
He knows what they should be;
For He can view the pattern
Upon the upper side
Wile I can see it only
On this, the under side.
Sometimes He weaveth sorrow,
Which seemeth strange to me:
But I will trust his judgement
And work on faithfully;
'Tis He who fills the shuttle,
and He knows what is best.
So I shall weave in earnest,
Leaving to Him the rest.
Not 'til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why-
The dark threads are as needed
In the Weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.###imported-begin###Frank W. Rossi###imported-end###
