“ Dear Stan, Nancy, Bob, Barb, Donna, Mary, Di-Di and families,

 I am so sorry that I wasn't able to attend the wake or funeral mass for Molly. I have many fond memories of your mom from growing up on good ole' Grand Avenue and spending much time at your house. She was so good to my grandmother and so loyal about going to visit her. I think they really enjoyed chatting about all of the Slovenians and family. Everytime that I would see your mom as an adult as well she was always so friendly and interested in my family and how everyone was doing. Such a sad time for all of you. I wish that I could have been there to see everyone. I'm glad that Molly's suffering was short and she was able to live at home throughout. Again, my deepest sympathy to all, she will truly be missed. Love, Therese
