*To Marueen's family,
I am so sorry to hear the news. I went to high school with Maureen. She was great and she was just one of those people that everyone loved. Daily masses will be offered for her through an enrollment in the Association of Marian Helpers for 15 years.
With deepest sympathy,

“ *To Maureen's Family
Those we love are never really lost to us---We feel them in so many special ways---Through friends they always cared about and dreams they left behind, In beauty that they added to our days... In words of wisdom we still carry with us and memories that never will be gone... Those we love are never really lost to us.... For everywhere their special love lives on.

Maureen and I saw Team America together at the theater. We laughed so hard. It was a bit more risque than I expected, but we had a great time. So even though this is not a pic of Maureen, it brings back old memories of fun times with her.

“ Dear Family Wilbur,

Our deepest sympathy to Maureen's beautiful family and friends. As newlyweds, we were blessed to hold two squirming little babies in slippery white gowns as the saving waters were poured over their little heads some 47 years ago. It is with great sadness that we learned that Our Lord has called Maureen home to join Glenn and Irene.

May God comfort you and enfold you in His embrace at this time.

*Loving Godparents,

Maureen pulled a sneaker on Mom and brought her to the party without telling her. You can see the look on Mom's face like what is this?

A TRUE FRIEND

*Sometime throughout life you'll meet,
something so rare
and really sweet,*

*it's the one thing
that's always there,
no matter what
life gives you to bear,*

*friendship
is what I'm talking about,
that one thing
you shouldn't live without,*

*there's nothing else
that compares,
to having a true one
that you can share,*

*true ones
those rare gems,
always seem
to make you grin,*

*you may be close
and talk a lot,
or just touch base,
when life's bothering you a lot,*

*you may fight,
and make up soon,
no matter what
they're there for you,*

*if someone else
messes with you,
they better look out
cause they're messing with two,*

*So when you find
that one,
be sure to have
lots of fun,*

*enjoy the life
that you've been given, before they go
and run off to heaven,*

*mine has passed
way too soon,
traveling just
beyond the moon,*

*so I'll always cherish, the love that we knew,
even though
life seems so blue.*

“ Maureen was the most kind, well spirited person that I have ever known. She found humor in every situation, good or bad. We took a trip to Minneapolis together and I think I laughed for 3 straight days. Maureen was my phone-a-friend living talking cookbook !! Her culinary skills were the best ever. The world has lost such a genuinely good person. I hope to one day meet my friend again.

“ I'll never forget when me, Maureen, and Marilyn all had summer drivers ed together. The principal, Mr. Zemke (sp?) was our teacher. When Marilyn was driving, Mr. Zemke had us go to his house since he had to pick up something, and when he got out, Maureen and I pushed the seat way up (he was tall) and when he got back in the car, he slammed his knees on the dash. It was funny.
