“ I knew Mavis from Our Lady of Victory and she was sweet and witty and will be greatly missed. Hard to imagine day to day at Our Lady without her! The ladies at her table in the dining room won't let anyone sit in her chair! Mavis we love you. Charlene

“ Jan: I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I remember meeting your mom many years ago when you, me and Trudy went to Indiana and Ohio. She was very nice and hospitable to us. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Duane and Mavis were our neighbors who lived on their farm just a few miles from ours. I used to help Walter Lindley farm their land. They set good examples by their Christian lives.

“ Known Mavis since I was a young child. Many memories of attending church together, sharing wonderful meals in the fellowship hall, and the many hours of baling hay at their farm. Rest In Peace and may God comfort those who are mourning her loss

“ Mavis was a lovely lady. She will be missed by all of us at the nursing home. On her way to dinner she would pass my desk and always had a smile and a little wave. She was loved. Rest in peace.
