“ *Josie and Family,

Our thoughts are with you at your time of loss.

There are so many happy memories of Max.

One that comes to mind, is when we used to live across the street from you on Douglas Dr. - I will always remember the times when Max would light a match for his cigarette and he would always let me blow the match out. A small memory, but truly meaningfull to me.

Remember the happy times and treasure them always :)
