“ Maysie was a really sweet lady. She rented our upstairs apartment on South Rosewood for several years. I remember she was always smiling. I believe she was working at Amberg at the time. I remember her daughter Alberta and am sorry that I cannot attend the memorial service today and see Alberta in person. Very sorry for your loss. My mom died at 92 so I know that sometimes it is time to let go. But it is still hard. My sympathy to the entire family.
