“Megan typed our cookbook recipes for Hansens Cookbook. We all knew it was difficult for her and would take her a long time, but she wanted to do it. We will all have a lasting memory of her hard work. I know Megan always wanted to be independent and do things herself. She accomplished so much with the hardships she endured. She is an inspiration to all who knew her. We must also recognize her family, and especially her mom, Sue, who was always there, encouraging her and supporting her decisions. Megan-always had sparkly eyes, I won't forget. Her shy smile made you wonder what was really on her mind. My sympathy to the family, but how lucky you were to have a part in the life of Megan!

“ Although I had not seen Megan since she was in Manteno Middle School, I will always remember the first day she brought Darcy into the school office. She was so excited and could not stop smiling. Megan faced many challenges in life but never gave up and was always blessed by the love and support of her family. Deepest sympathy. Martha Krueger
